Premier Solutions Group Earns Outstanding Performance Award from Cisco Systems, Inc.

Premier Solutions Group, LLC (PSG) announced today it received a Regional Award during The Cisco Partner Summit 2004. This award recognizes PSG for Outstanding Performance in an Advanced Technology.

"Our channel partners are critical to our success," said Chuck Robbins, vice president of US Channels, Cisco Systems. "At our annual Partner Summit, I had the privilege of recognizing our top channel partner performers for 2003. I would like to congratulate Premier Solutions Group on an award-winning year."

The Outstanding Performance in an Advanced Technology award recognizes the Mid-Atlantic partner who has achieved the highest levels of performance in customer satisfaction and technology integration while having strong sales growth. PSG was recognized for its IP Communications practice, which is focused on IP Telephony, Unified Messaging, Voice-Over-IP (VoIP), and Video Conferencing solutions.

"This Outstanding Performance recognition belongs to our dedicated and customer-focused employees," said Daryl F. Heller, CEO, Premier Companies, LLC. "Of course, this recognition wouldn't be possible without customers, so I'd like to express appreciation to them for their business."
